

INCARNATION OF CHRIST

A photograph of a nativity scene. Mary, on the left, is wearing a white headscarf and a blue robe, looking down at the baby Jesus. Joseph, on the right, is wearing a white headscarf and a dark robe, also looking at the baby. The baby Jesus is lying in a manger, wrapped in white cloth. The scene is set in a dark, rustic environment with hay and a warm, golden light source in the background.

INCARNATION

A person or thing regarded as embodying or exhibiting a quality or idea, a deity or spirit.

INCARNATION OF CHRIST:
FULLY GOD, FULLY MAN

⁶Who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; ⁷rather, he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. ⁸ And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death—even death on a cross!

Php 2:6-8

For in Christ all the fullness of the Deity lives in bodily form

Col 2:9

For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Eph 6:12

The angel said to him, “I am Gabriel. I stand in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you this good news.

Lk 1:19

³⁰ But the angel said to her, “Do not be afraid, Mary; you have found favor with God. ³¹ You will conceive and give birth to a son, and you are to call him Jesus. ³² He will be great and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, ³³ and he will reign over Jacob’s descendants forever; his kingdom will never end.”

Lk 1:30-33

20 But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. 21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.”
